

11 A poem: We want summer!

All my books are waiting.
No, I'm not listening.
All my teachers are asking.
I want summer.

In Drama teachers are acting.
In English pupils are reading.
In German I am sleeping.
I want summer.

Oh, how I am waiting.
Shouting, hoping, saying!
When is school ending?
I want summer.

I hear my teacher calling.
What is this she's saying?
"Tony, why are you staying?
Go home now. I want summer!"

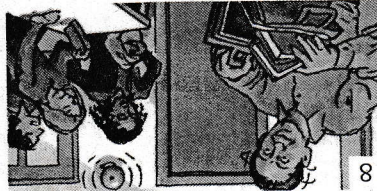

b) Write an '-ing' poem in a group about the pupils in your classroom. What are they doing at the moment? Each pupil says one line of the poem.

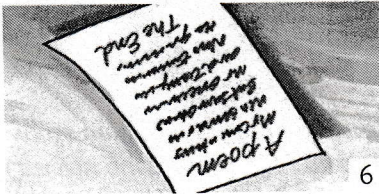

The girls

Mr Green

And now my

Mr Green is teaching.

Sweet Emma is he is

But Sam - oh no! -

chat

leave

shout end

pack

read teach sleep

laugh

a) Look at this picture story. Write a sentence for every picture. Always use the '-ing' form. Then you have a poem. Use these words:

10 A poem' by

(your name)

(+ p. 97)